

Call for Proposals

2nd Annual Pennsylvania Leadership Studies Conference A One-Day Research-focused event for Scholars and Students

Saturday, April 6, 2019
Dixon University Center, Harrisburg PA

Theme: “Leadership: Illuminating the Process”

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Susan Boser from Indiana University of PA

Professor & Asst Chair, Sociology & former 15th Congressional District candidate

Accepting proposals for individual research papers, research paper sessions, roundtable sessions, panels and workshops on all aspects of leadership research; proposals addressing the theme are especially welcome.

All sessions are 60 minutes in length. Research paper sessions will have 3 paper presentations of 15 minutes' length focused on current research in leadership and should include title, brief description and abstracts of each paper along with each author's name, affiliation and email. Individual research papers with a title, abstract, author name and affiliation are also welcome. Individual papers will be 15 minutes in length and grouped into a research paper session. Roundtable session proposals should include brief description of topic, 2-3 proposed discussion prompts and proposed learning outcomes; the organizer will serve as convener. Panel and workshop session proposals should include title, brief description and learning outcomes. Roundtable, panel and workshop session proposals should also include participants' names, affiliations, and emails.

Please email all proposals of individual research papers, research paper sessions, roundtables, panels, or workshop sessions with "2nd annual" in subject line to

Barbara Denison, Shippensburg University at bjdeni@ship.edu

Include your name, affiliation, and email (and the same for all members of a complete session) along with abstract not to exceed 250 words. Deadline is Feb 28, 2019. Questions to same email.

All presenters on the program are required to pay registration, which will be $35 for regular participants and $10 for students. Preregistration will be available after Feb. 1, 2019.

Registration opens at 8:15 am. Sessions conclude by 4:30 pm
